Your Alter-ego is...

Mostly a's...Your alter-ego is Gromit

Your Class Rep superpower is...Finding solutions.
When it comes to sorting problems and solving sticky situations, people turn to you. Just like Wallace's trusty canine sidekick, you're level-headed, clear-sighted and come up with practical solutions that work. People like and trust you, so they're willing to pitch in when you need their help.

Mostly b's...Your alter-ego is Bart Simpson

Your Class Rep superpower is...Having fun. You know the secret of fundraising – the more fun you create, the more money you raise. Just like your little yellow alter ego, you're great at getting people to join in and have a laugh, so you can persuade even hard-to-reach parents that the PTA is worth supporting.

Mostly c's...Your alter-ego is Maltilda

Your Class Rep superpower is...Creativity. Smart, creative and persuasive, you make a great Class Rep. Your sparky imagination means you come up with interesting ways to raise money and clever tricks for advertising your events. Plus, your listening skills put people at ease, helping you to build a strong community of parents around you.

Mostly d's...Your alter-ego is Buffy the Vampire Slayer

Your Class Rep superpower is...Dynamism. Your energy and determination mean that you're a natural leader. You're great at delegation, understand what other people can bring to a project and know how to motivate them. People admire you, so they want to help you out.
